

THE COHEN COMPANY

Women's and Misses' Long Coat Suits, $10.

This suit is well tailored; it is of Cheviot in black, blue and green. The coat is 42 inches long, and the new tight-fitting style. We wanted to get a suit to sell at $10 that would advertise us by the satisfaction it gives you.

Imported Broadcloth, $1.

This is the regular $1.75 to $2.50 Broadcloth, that were not perfect enough to rank as firsts. The inspection of broadcloths is very severe, a defect you could never find makes a second. Any shade that you want, also black. The width is 50 to 54 inches. We will not be able to get another lot from the mills for a long time. You'll make no mistake in buying for future use.

Poems You Ought to Know.

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Professor Charles Eliot Norton.

LET VANITY ADORN.

No. 608.

By BEATTIE.

BEATTIE'S best known work is "The Minstrel"; or "The Progress of Genius," the first book of which appeared in 1771. It was received with an applause whose echoes grow fainter and fainter as we recede from the eighteenth century. The second book, published in 1774, was as cordially received as the first. Some idea of the scope of the poem may be gained by perusing the poet's letter to a friend: "I propose to give an account of the birth, education and adventures of one of those birds (of the Scotch border) in which I shall have full scope for description, sentiment, satire, and even a certain species of humor and pathos. My hero is to be born in Scotland, which you know was the native land of English minstrels. His father is a shepherd."

This extract is the seventeenth stanza, Book II, of "The Minstrel." It is spoken by a hermit. Another selection from Beattie, his portrait, autograph and biographical sketch, have already been printed in this series.

LET Vanity adorn the marble tomb
With trophies, rhymes, and scutcheons of renown,
In the deep dungeon of some Gothic dome,
Where night and desolation ever frown.
Mine be the breezy hill that skirts the down,
Where a green grassy turf is all I crave,
With here and there a violet bestrown.
Fast by a brook or fountain's murmuring wave;
And many an evening sun shine sweetly on my grave.

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1903. One is published each day.

THOUSANDS IN FINES FOR ILLEGIT SELLERS

Whiskey Cases that May Go to the Supreme Court.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FRONT ROYAL, Va., Sept. 20.—In the special term of the Circuit Court, Judge T. W. Harrison, of Winchester, presiding, the following were convicted and fined for illegal sales of whiskey: Byrd Fletcher, fined $2,250; Ewell Rose, $2,100; T. A. Lake, $750 and George Oden, $150. The total amount of fines imposed, including those imposed yesterday, being $8,070. Court adjourned until tomorrow morning, at which time it will be announced whether or not a jail sentence will be imposed on the convicted parties.

There is a possibility of these cases being taken to the Court of Appeals.

BRIEF DELAY.

Jefferson Hotel Contract Will Not Be Let for a Week.

Contrary to expectation the bids for the rebuilding of the Jefferson Hotel were not opened yesterday and they will not yet be opened for a week or ten days. The management found at the last moment that it was necessary to make certain changes in the plans, and these important alterations are cause of the short delay.
The president of the company assured a reporter yesterday that the delay is necessary to plan for certain emergencies and it can be but brief in any event. He feels sure that the bids will be opened in ten days, the contract awarded and an army of workmen put to business by the first week in October.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

An Unknown Angel.

She walks unnoticed in the street;
The casual eye
Sees nothing in her fair or sweet,
The world goes by
Unconscious that an angel's feet
Are passing nigh.

She little has of beauty's wealth;
Truth will allow
Only her priceless youth and health.
Her broad, white brow;
Yet grows she on the heart by stealth.
I scarce know how
She does a thousand kindly things
That no one knows:
A loving woman's heart she brings
To human woes
And to her face the sunlight clings
Where'er she goes.

And so she walks her quiet ways
With that content
That only comes to sinless days
And innocent;
A life devoid of fame or praise,
Yet nobly spent.

—Pall Mall Gazette.

Southern Girl Sponsor.

Miss Mabel Clare Money, daughter of the Senator from Mississippi, who has been selected to christen the new battleship Mississippi, in Philadelphia on September 30, is one of the most charming Southern girls in Washington official society. She has spent the most of her young life in Washington, owing to her father's long term in the House as Representative in Congress, preceding his election to the Senate. She is the younger daughter of the family. She is very accomplished in music, having studied both here and abroad for many years as a violinist. She has been for years a member of the Georgetown Orchestra, the representative orchestra of the city. Miss Money's engagement to Dr. William Whitney Kitchen, a young Canadian physician, was announced here last week.

Married Half a Century.

The following from the Baltimore Sun is of interest to Virginians:
Mr. and Mrs. John Brothman celebrated the golden anniversary of their wedding with a reception at their home, 1724 Harlem Avenue, last Wednesday evening. Their numerous friends congratulated them and wished them many years more of happy married life. Before her marriage, which took place in Westmoreland county, Virginia, Mrs. Brothman was Miss Olivia Lyell.

Hubbard—Lewis.

The marriage of Miss Alice Lewis, of 1213 North Twenty-ninth Street, to Mr. George W. Hubbard took place at St. Patrick's Church, at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The bride was attended by a becoming traveling suit of dark blue and carried bride's roses.

Miss Gracie Crabbin, the maid of honor, was also in blue and carried American Beauties. The best man was Mr. Gilbert Hayward, and the ushers were Messrs. Eddie Johns, Henry Keck, Eddie Allen and Willie Sinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard left immediately for a tour of the Northern cities and will be at home after October 1st at No. 108 North Twenty-ninth Street.

Selater—Goulding.

The home of Miss Bettie Goulding, on West Clay Street, was the scene of a quiet wedding yesterday afternoon, when her niece, Miss Emily Redd Goulding, of Henrico, became the bride of Mr. Richard Z. Selater, of Cartersville. Miss Goulding has spent some time in Cartersville with her sister, Mrs. S. L. Kie.

Scribbling—Croxtan.

Invitations have been received to the wedding of Miss Eva Latane Croxtan, daughter of Mrs. N. A. Croxtan, of Barton Heights, to Mr. James Hunter Scribbling, of Richmond. The marriage will be solemnized on Tuesday, October 3rd, at Centenary Methodist Church.

Hayward—Crabbin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Crabbin have issued cards announcing the wedding of their daughter, Grace, to Mr. Gilbert L. Hayward. The ceremony will be performed in Washington, D. C., after which the young couple will tour the North. The bride is a popular young lady of Church Hill, and is but sixteen. The groom is a talented young sculptor and wood carver and has done some excellent work in his chosen profession.

Entertained Mrs. Bailey.

The following from the Atlanta Journal will be of interest to Richmond people:
Mrs. James Clay Gentry entertained the members of the West End Club Friday morning at the Driving Club in honor of her guest, Mrs. Robert L. Bailey, of Richmond, Va.

Domino, which was the game played. Mrs. D. T. McIntyre won the first prize, a sterling silver tray, which she presented to Mrs. Bailey. The consolation, a bronze incense burner, was won by Mrs. Wallace Kirkpatrick. Mrs. Waddell won the booby prize, an egg-beater, to which a note was attached bearing the encouraging inscription: "You can always beat with this."

Mrs. Bailey is a gifted and popular young matron, of Richmond, and has made many admirers in Atlanta. Friday she wore a lovely gown of white Indian silk accented with a white lace cord and hat with white bows. Mrs. Gentry wore a pretty morning dress of white linen accented heavily in lace. Her becoming hat was white chip straw trimmed with a white bird. At the conclusion of the game which was played in the club parlors, a luncheon was served at the end tables.
Mrs. Gentry's guests were Mrs. A. R. Colcord, Mrs. J. W. Pope, Mrs. Fred Wagner, Mrs. E. V. Carter, Mrs. J. T. Dargan, Mrs. W. B. Disbro, Mrs. P. J. Sprattling, Mrs. Marshall Eckford, Mrs. W. B. Foster, Mrs. Wallace Kirkpatrick, Mrs. D. T. McIntyre, Mrs. C. T. Laidson, Mrs. W. H. Emerson, Mrs. Luther Allen, Mrs. Tye Jennings, Mrs. Luther Rosser, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Lucian Harris, Mrs. J. M. Sinton, Mrs. A. P. Norman, Mrs. W. T. Gentry, Miss Alma Pope, Mrs. Lawrence Battle and Mrs. E. G. Basswell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gentry are not unknown to Richmond. They have been for some years connected with the Southern Railway here. His friends will be pleased to hear of his success since his resignation from the railway service. Mr. Gentry now occupies a prominent position as secretary and treasurer of The Atlanta Ice and Coal Company, one of the wealthiest corporations of the South.

Reception to Dr. Calisch.

The congregation of Beth Ahava Temple will give a welcoming reception to Rabbi E. N. Calisch to-night from nine to eleven. The vestry rooms of the temple will be beautifully decorated with flowers and leaves and the choir, composed of Mrs. John Murphy, Miss Mabel McLean, Dr. Manfred Gail, and Mr. Moses May, will furnish the music. Light refreshments will be served. The affair is under the auspices of the Beth Ahava Auxiliary, of which Mrs. Sam Cohen is president.

Dr. Calisch, who has been traveling in Europe for the purpose of study, returned to the city Tuesday night. He is one of Richmond's most eloquent speakers and a popular with all classes.

SENATOR MARTIN TO SPEAK AT THE FAIR

He Accepts An Invitation to Address the People of Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., September 20.—Senator Thomas S. Martin has notified Colonel E. D. Cole that he will attend the Agricultural Fair at this city the second day, Wednesday next, September 21st. A large number of his friends will be here to meet him. Senator Martin will speak in this city on the night of October 21, and will be given a rousing welcome. He will probably have the biggest crowd to hear him that has gathered on a similar occasion in this city for many years. He will address the voters of Stafford county at the county seat on October 20, coming here that night. Hon. C. A. Swanson, Hon. Joseph E. Willard, Hon. J. Taylor Edgmon and other prominent men are also expected here at the fair next week.

In a difficulty at the Excelsior Mills at Cedar Park, Caroline county, on Saturday night, two men, a Mr. Covington and Mr. Sauer, became involved in a difficulty, when Covington is alleged to have struck Sauer with a piece of wagon pole and Sauer was so badly injured by the blow that upon the advice of a physician, he was taken to the Shafter Arms Hospital in Richmond.

Rev. Mr. Fizer, a prominent Methodist minister of Westmoreland county, was badly injured a few days ago by colliding with a buggy on the highway, while riding horseback in the dark. His horse was also seriously injured.

Two young men of this city went to the marshes on Aquia Creek Monday to shoot song and meadow larks. Rev. B. A. Williams, pastor of the Baptist Church of this city, who has been sick for several days, is now convalescent.

THE HUNTING SEASON.
The Music of Fox-Hounds Heard in Lunenburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MEHERRIN, Va., Sept. 20.—The music from a pack of twelve well trained hounds opened up the fox hunting season in this section at an early hour this morning. A vast crowd of this morning. A vast crowd of this morning. A vast crowd of this morning.

Some time before the sun made its appearance the "bark" of one of the hunters was heard, and the anticipated amusement which had inspired them to leave their comfortable apartments long before the usual hour was only a short distance ahead. It took two hours and twenty minutes to capture the fox, and Mr. Robert W. Priddy secured the large bushy tail as a memento of the very exciting chase. The supply of foxes is somewhat above the average this year, and much enjoyment is expected from the future hunts which will take place.

AT TOP NOTCH.

The Lynchburg Home Guard Receive One Hundred Per Cent.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., September 20.—The Lynchburg Home Guard, Company E, of the Seventeenth Regiment, last night made at the annual inspection under the auspices of the State, which was conducted by Colonel Jo Lane Stern, of Richmond, 100 per cent. in attendance and in the drill that followed the inspection of the men. In the six last inspections of the company, every man was present, making a record that has probably never been equaled in the State troops of Virginia. If, indeed, anywhere. At the close of the inspection of the company, Colonel Stern told Captain Crankhill, the commander of the company, "I was as proud of the company as I was the captain, declaring the company had reached a state that could not be excelled."
The company is recognized as the best from every viewpoint in Virginia, and every man in it strives at all times to maintain the standard of the company under all circumstances.

CAPT. LEE WITHDRAWS.
R. C. L. Moncure Nominated Without Opposition.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., September 20.—R. C. L. Moncure, of Stafford, was today nominated as Democratic candidate for the House of Delegates from the 10th district of the General Assembly at a meeting of the Democratic Committee of the two counties held at Cox's store in Stafford this afternoon. There was no opposition to Mr. Moncure, who was as proud of Stafford, having withdrawn from the contest several days ago.
